

VRA Automation Specialist (Permanent)

Description:

Asystec Limited is a Data Management Solution Provider with offices in Dublin, Cork, Limerick and Minnesota, United States. Partnering with such organisations as: Dell Technologies, VMware, Varonis and Oracle; Our primary focus is to design solutions to assist companies to manage, secure and identify their key data assets within their organisation.

Asystec are seeking an Automation Specialist to join our rapidly growing team! This is an exciting opportunity to grow your skills and partner with an enterprise company & work on projects for high profile clients.

You who will primarily be working with VMware vRealize Automation and Orchestration. This role will concentrate on the development of technical solutions to deliver directly against business requirements.

Key Responsibilities:

- Understanding of the infrastructure components of a Software Defined Datacentre
- Understand the integration of 3rd party applications into an automation tools
- Sound knowledge of API's and scripting required for the development of automation use cases
- Develop, maintain and support internal private cloud IaaS utilising vRealize Automation & vRealize Orchestrator.

Essential Requirements:

- Experience in the deployment of automation projects
- Experience in providing integrations into automation solutions
- Pre and Post Sales experience in designing an automation journey
- Understanding in design, implementation of solutions that require containers (Kubernetes etc)
- Experience of VMware NSX
- Understanding and experience with VMware Cloud Foundation solutions
- Experience with several automation toolsets such as Jenkins, Puppet, Ansible*
- Strong familiarity with scripting (Unix Shell / PowerCLI / PowerShell / PERL / Python / JavaScript)

Desirable Requirements:

- VCAP VMware Automation
- VCP VMware VRA
- Experience in Design / Deployment of VXRail / VXRACK solutions
- Experience of public and private cloud systems such as VMware Cloud on AWS, Amazon Web Services and Microsoft Azure

Additional Information:

- Life insurance
- Work from home opportunities
- Health insurance
- On-site parking
- Company events & social hours
- On site gym

To apply – please send your application to careers@asystec.ie

If you choose to apply to this opportunity and share your CV or other personal information with Asystec, these details will be held by us in accordance with our privacy policy used by our recruitment team to contact you regarding this or other relevant opportunities.